

St. Jude Women's Circle Scholarship 7th-8th Grade St. Monica Students

St. Jude Women's Circle is a non-profit women's social and service organization for women of all ages in St. Monica Catholic Church. Our purpose is to provide support to the church, school and parish community through a variety of events held each year.

St. Jude Women's Circle will award a total of two scholarships to students entering either grades seven or eight at St. Monica School. Each scholarship will be a one-time award of $500 applied to the student's tuition for the 2010-2011 school year. Recipients can re-apply in the following year.

Recipients will be announced on Friday, May 7, 2010.

To be considered for the St. Jude Women's Circle Scholarship:

- The applicant must have applied for admission to St. Monica School for the 2010-11 school year. Scholarship is open to current re-registered students and new applicants.
- The applicant must be entering grade seven or eight.
- The applicant must submit current grades for the first through third quarter 2009-10 school year.
- The applicant must submit a one page essay describing an experience where they displayed a generous, courageous and kind act or detailing an experience where they were able to persevere in a difficult circumstance.
- The applicant must submit a recommendation from a current teacher. The teacher will return the recommendation directly to the St. Jude Women's Scholarship Committee by March 24.

All documents are confidential and used for the sole purpose of evaluation for this scholarship application.
